

Schools chaplain meets supporters

A SPECIAL function to introduce Harvey's new schools chaplain, Michael Spencer, to sponsors and donors was held at the Forbes residence north of Harvey recently.

It was a successful event, with lots of positive feedback on the chaplaincy program.

Committee president Roy Forbes welcomed guests and gave an overview of the program.

He foreshadowed plans to recruit another chaplain to look after the Harvey and Brunswick primary schools.

Mr Spencer is presently working with Harvey Senior High School and Harvey Agricultural College.

He spoke about the work he was doing in these schools and of some of his experiences so far.

Jeff Gale of the Shire of Harvey Shire, left, Leanne Shaw of Lions, Merrilee and John Fry.

Several prospective donors registered an interest in supporting a second chaplain during the evening.

Mr Forbes said the evening was well received and he was pleased with the response.

Roy Forbes, left, Rosalie Byrd of Alcoa and Neale Armstrong of Harvey Agricultural College.

Harvey Beef CEO Michael Rapattoni, left, HSHS deputy principal Lea Fairfoul-Hutcheon, Michael Spencer and wife Kate.